HELP WANTED-Male.

SALESMEN.

Man is not the creature of circum-stances, Circumstances are the creatures of men.

But out of a hundred of us, there may be only one Disraell. And it is a said fact that many of us are round pegs in square holes—we do not fit our environment. I don't profess to be able to make a Lord Beaconsfield out of every round peg that I meet in my business, but I have discovered some wonderful truths of late, I found that most of us round pegs have in us a young Disraell striving to overcome the forces of adverse circumstance. And I am happy to say that I have been able to give just the needed help in many casses to win the victory. Men who weren't "going so goed" have associated themselves with me and have become BIG PRODICERS. A little easy money in one's pocket makes all the difference in the world; It's a moral uplift, too. Men have come to my doer, diffident, unwilling to turn the handle—It might have been the dentist's. SEE THOSE SAME MEN TO-DAY, and you'll realize what their contact with me has meant to them and to their families. I, personally, was not the good fairy: It was the wonderful proposition I had to offer them, the refined environment, the modern up to date equipment and the stanch cooperation of a soild, established and progressive downtown hanking institution. Whether or not you ever sold securities—or anything else—I shall be giad to do that you need to have is ambition and energy enough to WRITE ME FOR AN APPOINTMENT. If you merely possess the instincts of a gentleman I think I can show you how to make circumstance your plaything. Write me in confidence and expect my full cooperation, for you'll get it. Box M 555 Herald.
